

A global human capital consulting firm, WilsonChapman skillfully provides the strategy and change management plans to navigate complex technical changes and organizational challenges that are impeding efficiency.

Our Services

Change Management

Develops strategies to manage inevitable organizational transitions, with a specialized focus on change management for technical implementations and efficiency improvements. Provides the tools and change management plans needed to navigate delicate, complex organizational changes resulting from new policies, technology, processes, and reorganizations.

Leadership Development & Executive Coaching

Provides essential insights to help emerging, mid-level, and senior leaders navigate their careers from recruitment to retirement. Utilizing instruments such as DiSC, MBTI, and Leadership Circle Profile, WilsonChapman guides leaders to discover and refine a productive leadership style, creating fulfilling work environments for their employees.

Team Development & Training

Offers customized interactive programs in leadership development, communications skills, and team effectiveness. Delivers proven experience in strategizing and partnering with leaders to design and empower dynamic workforces.

Assessments & Reporting

Conducts assessments and develops comprehensive reports based on quantitative and qualitative data gathered through focus groups and interviews. Provides well-researched recommendations tailored to the culture of organizations/agencies.

Our Unique Approach

Envision

Engage

Get key stakeholders and team members engaged in the process.

Execute

Create and deliver comprehensive project plans based on established priorities.

Commit

Amplify the leadership's commitment to enhance employee engagement and corporate culture.

Communicate

Communicate openly and consistently to all team members at all stages of the plan.

Continue

Continue to push boundaries and advocate for full acceptance of current and expected changes.
